Area 1 is the BEST!

Hello! Thank you, Area 1, for an incredible Spring Leadership Conference! Your officers had so much fun, and we loved getting to know some of you guys during the conference. Congratulations to the finalists and state competitors in each event; all of your hard work has paid off! Also, congratulations to Dripping Springs High School for winning the Scavenger Hunt and to James Madison High School for winning the Spirit Award. Continue to “Forecast Your Destiny,” and good luck at State!

Italy Ramos is “running” for State Officer!

Meet Italy Ramos, a sophomore at Health Careers High School. She runs cross country and track, is a freshman mentor, plays the viola, and is a UIL Academic Competitor. As a freshman and throughout this year as a sophomore, Italy saw the impact HOSA had on not only her school but as well as everyone around her. She is very excited to run as a future State Officer because she wants to show other teenagers that as long as you believe in yourself, you can do anything you want to do.

"HOSA is more than a student led organization, to me, it's a family. A family where we all support each other and work towards a common goal. Be apart of my HOSA family and vote Italy to be apart of your HOSA history!"

Area Color is GREEN!

Don't forget to keep that Area 1 spirit going at the State Leadership Conference! You can do so by bringing items that are your area color which is Green. Bring all things green to showcase how much spirit you or your school has. Be loud and proud, Area 1. Let's show them just how much spirit Area 1 has!

State Information!

Firstly, I would like to congratulate everyone who advanced from area to state! Our state conference will be located in San Antonio, Texas by the River Walk at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center. Keep on preparing because state is arriving quickly on March 28th-30th. Good luck everyone, and don't forget about conference fees, registration deadlines, and TALLO upload requirements. If there is any confusion, you can find more information and details about our state conference on the Texas HOSA website. Be sure to "Define Your Purpose" and have fun!
