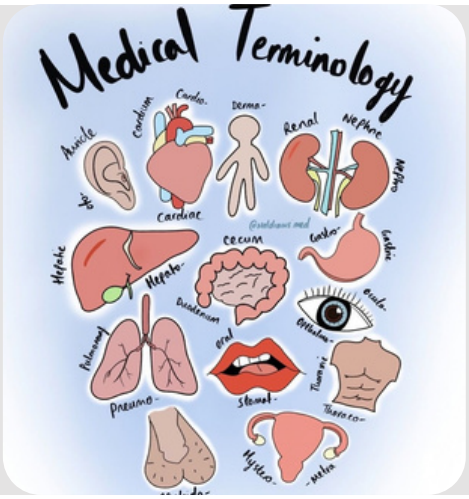
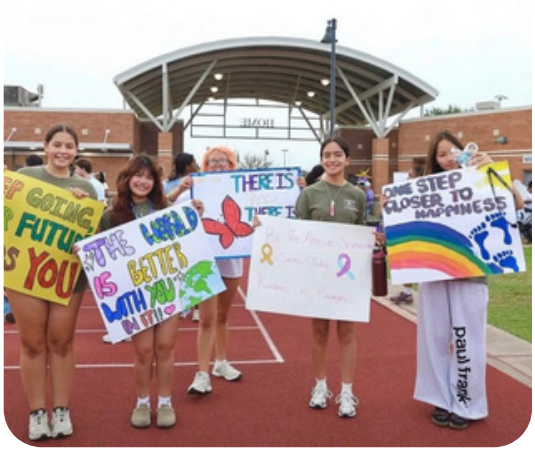
How to be an Officer

Want to become a Texas HOSA Officer? Start by studying the Section E Officer Handbook on the Texas HOSA website, then take the officer exam in your area. The top 12 scores advance to interviews with the current officer panel. Finalists then give a 2-minute speech at the Spring Leadership Conference Business Session before the election.

Competitive Event Spotlight: Medical Terminology

Medical Terminology is a great competitive event for members interested in learning the language of healthcare! Competitors are tested on medical terms, their meanings, word parts, and proper usage. This event is a great way to strengthen your medical vocabulary while building knowledge that can be useful in future healthcare classes and careers.





Suicide Awareness Month

Suicide Awareness Month is a time to promote mental health awareness, encourage open conversations, and remind others that they are not alone. It's important to look out for friends, listen without judgment, and connect someone who may be struggling with a trusted adult or professional. Small acts of kindness and support can make a meaningful difference.
