

Call for Competitive Events Team Members

Wanted: Qualified individuals who are interested in providing a quality competitive events program for the members of Texas HOSA. This team will be present at all Area Spring Leadership Conferences and the State Leadership Conference, where it will be responsible for distribution and collection of event materials, orienting and debriefing event teams, tabulation support, and the resolution of event issues. Retired individuals are preferred but those actively employed will also be considered.

Selection criteria:

- Basic knowledge of a CTSO competitive events program
  - HOSA preferred, but other CTSO programs will be considered
  - Specific training will be provided to the team
- Basic computer skills
  - Basic knowledge of Microsoft Office
  - Willing to learn conference management software
- Ability to perform basic mathematical computations
  - No calculus involved 😊
- Flexible thinking; ability to see the “big picture”
- Willingness to work in a team environment and to cross-train in all team responsibilities.
- Ability to attend the seven Area Spring Leadership Conferences and the State Leadership Conference
  - Area conferences require you to arrive on Thursday prior to each area conference by 4:00 pm for seven (7) consecutive weeks in January and February.
  - Any Competitive Events Team members who are currently active HOSA advisors will not be able to supervise their students at their home area conference or at state.
- Ability to attend Competitive Events Team training on January 3-6, 2020 in the Austin area.

Compensation:

Texas HOSA will assume financial responsibility for the following expenses incurred by the members of the Competitive Events Team:

- Lodging (2 team members/room), Travel, and Meals

In addition, each team member will earn a stipend of $4000.00, pro-rated by conference and payable after the State Leadership Conference.
