

2021 Virtual Texas State Conference Organizational Leadership Information

TIMELINE

- March 3: 2021 Virtual Texas Area Conference Registration Deadline
- March 4: Local advisors for all competitors that are taking an online test will receive an email with the student's testing ID, password, event name, and event time.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the event is two-fold:

- To assist with the selection process of Voting Delegates to represent Texas HOSA at the International Leadership Conference (ILC) and;
- To encourage HOSA members to develop and apply their knowledge of HOSA and Parliamentary Procedure while serving as an official Voting Delegate.

ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP TEST

Texas HOSA will use the HOSA Voting Delegate test as a selection method to determine Voting Delegates for the International Leadership Conference.

- Each chapter may register up to 2 members for the Organizational Leadership Test.
- The Organizational Leadership test shall be in the form of a 30 minute, 25-item multiple choice test and one essay question.
- The written test will measure knowledge and understanding of the information required to be a voting delegate.
- Competitors will have 30 minutes to complete the test.
- The essay will only be used if a tie-breaker is needed.
- The official references for the selection of test questions for the Organizational Leadership Test will be:
 - HOSA Handbook, Sections A, B, and C
 - HOSA Website
 - Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised in Brief 3rd Edition.
- See HOSA.org, Competitive Event Guidelines, for the official testing plan.

NUMBER OF VOTING DELEGATES SELECTED FOR ILC

- Each chartered association shall be allowed to select qualified HOSA members to serve as Voting Delegates at the ILC based on a division membership formula.
- Voting Delegates selected to represent Texas HOSA and the International Leadership Conference will be notified by the state office via email.
- All members who are selected by Texas HOSA to serve as ILC Voting Delegates will be expected to follow the rules and attend all events as outlined in the Organizational Leadership Guidelines located at HOSA.org, Competitive Events.
